Owner of Loan: United States of America acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture

Original Lender: United States of America acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CURE

Dear Ms. Parks:

This office represents United States of America acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture (the "Loan Owner") with respect to a promissory note (the "Note") secured by a mortgage (the "Mortgage"), both dated February 1, 2011, that you signed and gave to United States of America acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture (the "Lender"). The Mortgage is recorded in the Penobscot County Registry of Deeds, in Book 12394, Page 188, and covers property located at and about 1550 Pushaw Road Glenburn, ME 04401. The Loan Owner is the owner of the Note and the Mortgage.

February 3, 2025

The Loan Owner's records indicate that it has not received the monthly payment that came due under the Note on October 1, 2015, or on any later dates, and that other fees and costs are also past due. The Loan Owner's failure to receive those payments is a default under the Note and the Mortgage. You have the right to cure the default as provided in this notice.

As of the date of this notice, the amount needed to cure the default (the "Cure Amount") is $143,964.76, which is itemized as follows:

Past due payments of principal, interest and escrows:	$112,226.23
Preservation and inspection Fees:	$34,143.30
Late Charges:	$100.65
Attorney's Fees and Costs:	$2,070.00
Less Subsidy:	-$4,575.42

TOTAL CURE AMOUNT	$143,964.76

NOTE: The Cure Amount does not include any payments or charges that may become due after the date of this notice. Any such payments and charges will remain due after you pay the amount specified in this notice. The Cure Amount is not the full amount required to pay off all amounts outstanding under the Note and the Mortgage, but, instead, is the amount required to pay only what is now past due under those documents.

Maine law (14 M.R.S. § 6111) and the Mortgage provide that you have a right to cure this default by paying the Cure Amount of 143,964.76. This payment must be made by the thirty-fifth day from the date we give you this notice (or if that thirty-fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, then on the first business day after the end of that thirty-five day period) (the date by which this payment must be made is referred to elsewhere in this notice as the "Cure Deadline"). We are sending this notice to you by both certified mail and by ordinary first class mail on the date of this notice. The notice is considered to have been given to you five days after we mail it to you by ordinary first class mail. Therefore, the Cure Deadline is March 15, 2025.

If, on or before the Cure Deadline, you do not pay the Cure Amount, or reach some other agreement with the Loan Owner, then the full amount required to pay off all amounts outstanding under the Note and the Mortgage, including fees and charges that are added to that amount after the date of this notice, will be immediately due and payable in full.

Because interest, legal fees, and other charges owing on this loan may vary from day to day, the total amount required to pay off the loan in full on the day you pay may be greater than this amount. If the full amount outstanding under the Note and the Mortgage becomes due and payable and you do not pay it, then, unless you reach another agreement with the Loan Owner, that Loan Owner, and anyone acquiring the rights of the Loan Owner under the terms of the Note and the Mortgage, may take whatever actions it decides are necessary to protect its rights, and legal proceedings, including foreclosure upon the Mortgage, may be in order.

If you have received a discharge in a bankruptcy case, you are not personally liable for anything owed under the Note and the Mortgage. This means that if any default under the Note and the Mortgage is not cured, then the Loan Owner may be able to foreclose upon the Mortgage, sell the property covered by that Mortgage as part of that foreclosure, and keep enough of the sale proceeds to pay whatever is then owed under the Note and the Mortgage (including, but not limited to, principal, interest, late charges, costs of sale and other charges), but cannot otherwise collect amounts owing under the Note and the Mortgage from you. You should not consider anything in this notice, or in any materials provided with this notice, as a demand that you personally pay what is, or may come to be, owed under the Note or the Mortgage. Instead, the purpose of this notice and those materials is to provide you with information regarding the Note and the Mortgage and how foreclosure of the Mortgage may occur or be avoided.

You may have options available other than foreclosure. You may discuss available options with the mortgagee or a counselor approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. You are encouraged to explore available options prior to the Cure Deadline. To speak to someone with authority to modify your mortgage loan to avoid foreclosure, please contact:

Enclosed is a listing of counseling agencies approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development operating in the State of Maine to assist mortgagors to avoid foreclosure. In any foreclosure action, you may have the right to request mediation to explore options for avoiding a foreclosure judgment.

Attention Servicemembers and dependents: The Federal Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act ("SCRA") and certain state laws provide important protections for you, including prohibiting foreclosure under most circumstances. If you are currently in the military service, or have been within the last nine (9) months, AND joined after signing the Note and Mortgage now in default, please notify me immediately. When contacting our office as to your military service, you must provide positive proof as to your military status. If you do not provide this information, it will be assumed that you are not entitled to protection under the SCRA.

Along with this notice, we are enclosing a separate notice that describes additional rights you have under state and federal law. Please review that notice as well.
